Cooking Classes at the Vrooman Mansion

Community Education
www.heartland.edu/communityEd

The following demonstration cooking classes are co-sponsored with Vrooman Mansion. Come hungry as you'll be sampling each of the dishes prepared. Recipes are provided. Registration ends one week prior to the start of each class. Due to preparation time required, refunds will only be given if cancellation is received two weeks prior to the start of the class. Recipes will be provided to those who cancel less than two weeks before class. Participants may bring wine or beer, if at least 21 years of age, or a favorite beverage to the cooking class. Water will be provided.

A Romantic Dinner

Get ready to light the candles and set the table as Chef Terry Mullin shares his culinary expertise to showcase an exquisite dinner for Valentine's Day or any special occasion. He'll start the evening with sparkling Passion Fruit aperitifs and an appetizer of baked Stuffed Mushroom Caps. Next, you'll learn how to prepare Pork au Poivre (roasted boneless pork roast with cracked pepper), Potatoes Paulphine (Duchess Potatoes with parmesan cheese and egg yolks) and finish with a scrumptious Raspberry Heart Sacher Torte for dessert. Please note: Due to class preparation time, if you wish to cancel your registration from this class, you must do so by January 26 in order to receive a refund. If you cancel after this date, you will receive class recipes but no refund.

Tea & Scones

Join Jan Yoder and Judy Davis of the charming Sisters Victorian Tea Room as they introduce you to British scones. They'll start with the basic scone and delve into a variety of different ingredients to enhance the recipe which may include chocolate raspberry, apricot and cranberry-orange. To accompany these special bakery delicacies, Jan will provide a brief overview of the history of tea, show you the correct technique for the perfect brew and provide samples of assorted varieties. As a special treat, Judy will show you how easy it is to work with phyllo dough and she demonstrates how to prepare the ever popular baklava Greek treat. Please note: Due to class preparation time, if you wish to cancel your registration from this class, you must do so by February 18 in order to receive a refund. If you cancel after this date, you will only receive class recipes but no refund.

Soup - The Ultimate Comfort Food

As a first course at a holiday dinner party or a meal by itself, Chef Terry Mullin will show you the basics of soup preparation and how to prepare rich, hearty stocks. In this class, he'll be demonstrating soup dishes like French Onion Gratin, Beef Mushroom Barley, Chicken Noodle with homemade noodles (a classic!) and Cream of Broccoli. Add a hot crusted loaf of French bread with honey butter for spreading to make a delicious winter feast. Please note: Due to class preparation time, if you wish to cancel your registration from this class, you must do so by February 2 in order to receive a refund. If you cancel after this date, you will receive class recipes but no refund.

Built in 1869, the Vrooman Mansion had extensive additions in 1900, doubling its size. This historic home has 36 rooms on three floors with over 10,000 sq. ft. of living space. Every effort has been made to retain the mansion's authentic décor and ambience. Relive history as you imagine being present during speeches by both Lincoln and Douglas.

The Vrooman Mansion is located at 701 East Taylor Street (at the corner of Taylor and Clayton) in Bloomington, Illinois.
